

ABSTRACT

This invention is about a unit, container /bottle /can /carton holding two liquids in separate compartments. For example apple juice and orange juice or grape soda and orange soda, white milk and chocolate milk is divided into two sides and held separately. This liquid is composed of two divided sections each having its own side for pouring /drinking consumption.

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Clear soda and brown soda can be in one place to be housed under one roof however sharing one roof they both each have there own rooms however separate but very even and equal with two sides.
